Veterinary continuing education opportunity: Fish health and regulatory medicine

A free workshop for veterinarians on fish regulatory medicine is scheduled April 26-27 at the Pyle Center on the University of Wisconsin-Madison campus.

More than a dozen speakers are scheduled, many of them nationally recognized in the aquaculture field. Topics include:

- Aquatic certificates of veterinary inspection
- Veterinary accreditation
- Updates from neighboring states and interstate regulations
- OIE's role
- VHS surveillance
- Biosecurity
- Wisconsin's Fish Health Medicine Certificate Program
- The national and international Aquaculture and Veterinary Medicine Organizations
- Diagnostic lab tips and practitioner tips

The workshop is funded by the U.S. Department of Agriculture and the Wisconsin Department of Agriculture, Trade and Consumer Protection. The workshop is organized by Beverly Simonds and Dr. Myron Kebus, Wisconsin State Aquaculture Veterinarian.
